- . They belong to countries that are signatories to the Hague Convention (October 5, 1961) and can be authenticated by apostille.
- . They are issued by countries of the European Union, the European Economic Area, the European Free Trade Association, or the United Kingdom — in these cases, authentication is not mandatory.

If the documents are presented in a foreign language (except Spanish, English, French, or Italian), an official translation must be provided, in accordance with notarial law.

5. Submission of Application

All applications must be completed and submitted using the online platform (<https://sca.lisboa.ucp.pt/CandidaturasOnline/Candidato>).

At the end of the submission, the applicant will receive payment information:

- Applicants residing in Portugal: a ATM payment reference will be generated.
- Applicants without a bank account in Portugal: must request the bank transfer details by sending an email to tesouraria.sede@ucp.pt, including their full name and applicant number.

The application will be regarded as complete once payment has been made.

Applications without the required payment will not be assessed.

6. Evaluation of Applications, Ranking and Publication of Results

The selection and ranking of applicants will be carried out by the "Admissions Committee" which is composed by Prof. Dr. Filipa Delgado Neiva Correia Ribeiro, Prof. Dr. João Miguel Santos Pereira and Prof. Dr. Rita Isabel Manjerico Canaipa.

The results of the evaluation will be published as per the established regulations.

Criteria Change of Institution/Course Pair
Highest number of credits (ECTS) corresponding to the curricular units completed in a similar study cycle
Highest number of credits (ECTS) to be credited in case of a change of course.
Highest weighted arithmetic means of the Course units mentioned in the previous points, expressed on a scale of 10 to 20

The Admissions Committee will assign a final grade between 0 and 20, based on the 0–20 scale, which reflects the approval decision. This grade results from the weighted combination of scores awarded for each evaluation component. The minimum grade required for eligibility is 10.

Results will be emailed to applicants and may fall into one of the following categories:

Admitted, Not Admitted, or Excluded.

7. Functioning

This 3-year (180 ECTS) bachelor's degree in Systems and Cognitive Neuroscience is conducted in person and follows a daytime schedule.

Classes typically take place from Monday to Friday, between 8am and 7pm.

Attendance in the bachelor's programme in Systems and Cognitive Neuroscience involves both in-class and out-of-class academic activities, where specific software tools are actively used. Therefore, all students are expected to have a personal laptop to fully participate in all academic activities without limitations.

The language of instruction is English.

8. Tuition Fees, Charges and Administrative Costs

The amounts for tuition fees, charges, and other administrative costs are set annually and published in a specific document (Table of Tuition Fees, Charges, and Administrative Costs). As such, the applicable amounts for subsequent academic years may be subject to change.

Tuition and Fees (this does not replace consulting the Table of Tuition and Fees, which will soon be available on the website)
